PARAGRAPHS.
 —A Minnesota Judge, in pronouncing the death sentence, tenderly observed: "If guilty, you richly deserve the fate that awaits you; if innocent, it will be a gratification for you to feel that you were hanged without such a crime on your conscience; in either case you will be delivered from a world of care."
 —Is not Kaiser Wilhelm's prohibition of the exportation of horses from his dominion suggestive of a desire for a more stable government?—(New York Commercial Advertiser. That may be his name object, but it can not be determined that he has assumed a hostile attitude—Albany Argus.)
 —Aprons of the Tyndall-Darwin theories comes in one of Gen. Schenck's latest stories that he told to the wife of a British Cabinet officer, who assured him that "England made America all that she is." "Pardon, madam," said the General: "you remind me of an answer of the Ohio lad in his teens, who, attending Sunday school for the first time, was asked by his teacher, 'Who made you?' 'Made me? 'Yes,' 'Why God made me about so long (holding his hands about ten inches apart), but I grewed the rest.'"
 —Dr. Schenck's Standard Remedies.
 The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and, taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.
 To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.
 The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, or when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off; the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.
 To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile is freely, and the liver is soon relieved.
 Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed, is freely used to prevent souring. It assists the lungs by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the lungs heal, and the patient will not get well if care is taken to prevent fresh colds.
 All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of SIXTH and ACHUTE STS., Philadelphia, every Monday. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country. 3-2-2m.
